Welcome to Ann Arbor!

The City of Ann Arbor was founded in 1824, and the University of Michigan was permanently located in 1837. The city of Ann Arbor and the University of Michigan form a "college town" atmosphere that is pedestrian-friendly, beautiful, exciting and enlightening. As you experience Ann Arbor's unique character, you will come to appreciate the rich history and the University's influence on the city and the region in which it is located.

The Huron Valley Chapter of the Architects Hub of Huron Valley (AHH) was founded in 1990, and the University of Michigan was permanently located in 1837. The city of Ann Arbor and the University of Michigan form a "college town" atmosphere that is pedestrian-friendly, beautiful, exciting and enlightening. As you experience Ann Arbor's unique character, you will come to appreciate the rich history and the University's influence on the city and the region in which it is located.

The Huron Valley Chapter of the Architects Hub of Huron Valley (AHH) was founded in 1990, and the University of Michigan was permanently located in 1837. The city of Ann Arbor and the University of Michigan form a "college town" atmosphere that is pedestrian-friendly, beautiful, exciting and enlightening. As you experience Ann Arbor's unique character, you will come to appreciate the rich history and the University's influence on the city and the region in which it is located.

The Huron Valley Chapter of the Architects Hub of Huron Valley (AHH) was founded in 1990, and the University of Michigan was permanently located in 1837. The city of Ann Arbor and the University of Michigan form a "college town" atmosphere that is pedestrian-friendly, beautiful, exciting and enlightening. As you experience Ann Arbor's unique character, you will come to appreciate the rich history and the University's influence on the city and the region in which it is located.

The Huron Valley Chapter of the Architects Hub of Huron Valley (AHH) was founded in 1990, and the University of Michigan was permanently located in 1837. The city of Ann Arbor and the University of Michigan form a "college town" atmosphere that is pedestrian-friendly, beautiful, exciting and enlightening. As you experience Ann Arbor's unique character, you will come to appreciate the rich history and the University's influence on the city and the region in which it is located.

The Huron Valley Chapter of the Architects Hub of Huron Valley (AHH) was founded in 1990, and the University of Michigan was permanently located in 1837. The city of Ann Arbor and the University of Michigan form a "college town" atmosphere that is pedestrian-friendly, beautiful, exciting and enlightening. As you experience Ann Arbor's unique character, you will come to appreciate the rich history and the University's influence on the city and the region in which it is located.

The Huron Valley Chapter of the Architects Hub of Huron Valley (AHH) was founded in 1990, and the University of Michigan was permanently located in 1837. The city of Ann Arbor and the University of Michigan form a "college town" atmosphere that is pedestrian-friendly, beautiful, exciting and enlightening. As you experience Ann Arbor's unique character, you will come to appreciate the rich history and the University's influence on the city and the region in which it is located.

The Huron Valley Chapter of the Architects Hub of Huron Valley (AHH) was founded in 1990, and the University of Michigan was permanently located in 1837. The city of Ann Arbor and the University of Michigan form a "college town" atmosphere that is pedestrian-friendly, beautiful, exciting and enlightening. As you experience Ann Arbor's unique character, you will come to appreciate the rich history and the University's influence on the city and the region in which it is located.

The Huron Valley Chapter of the Architects Hub of Huron Valley (AHH) was founded in 1990, and the University of Michigan was permanently located in 1837. The city of Ann Arbor and the University of Michigan form a "college town" atmosphere that is pedestrian-friendly, beautiful, exciting and enlightening. As you experience Ann Arbor's unique character, you will come to appreciate the rich history and the University's influence on the city and the region in which it is located.

The Huron Valley Chapter of the Architects Hub of Huron Valley (AHH) was founded in 1990, and the University of Michigan was permanently located in 1837. The city of Ann Arbor and the University of Michigan form a "college town" atmosphere that is pedestrian-friendly, beautiful, exciting and enlightening. As you experience Ann Arbor's unique character, you will come to appreciate the rich history and the University's influence on the city and the region in which it is located.
First Baptist Church and Silas House
550 and 551 E. Huron Street
Church building from 1837, the second church in Michigan. Dedicated and used as a meeting hall by the “First Baptist Church of Ann Arbor.”

Michigan Theater
301 South Main Street
1925 Michigan Theater, 1926; 1988 sustaining renovation by Quinn Evans, 1990s. Renovated in 2007. The building is home to the Film合作 and Art House Film Festival, as well as numerous other cultural events.

First United Methodist Church
500 E. Washington Street
1907. The church was designed in the Gothic Revival style by architect George Booth. The building is notable for its elaborate stained glass windows and its distinctive steeple.

Kerrytown Market and The Market
512 and 502 E. Huron Street
Marjorie Taylor purchased and restored the historic buildings at 512 and 502 E. Huron Street, bringing life back to these sites. The buildings are now home to a variety of businesses.

UM - Hill Auditorium and Burton Building
512 E. University Avenue
1920s and 1930s. The Hill Auditorium was designed by Albert Kahn, and the Burton Building was added in 1961. The buildings are home to numerous events and performances.

UM - Huron Hill,Bushnell School of Sustainable Solutions
515 E. William Street
Located at the University of Michigan, Huron Hill Bushnell School of Sustainable Solutions is a prominent campus building, offering education and research in sustainability.

UM - The Diag, Central Campus
The Diag is a popular area on the University of Michigan’s Ann Arbor campus, known for its student life and academic services.

UM - Law School and Quadrangle
University of Michigan Law Quadrangle, located at 1310 E. Ann Street, includes several notable buildings designed by prominent architects.

Nichols Arcade
500 E. Michigan Avenue
Nichols Arcade is a historic commercial building in downtown Ann Arbor, featuring retail and office spaces.

Beep House
1317 S. State Street
A historic building located on the University of Michigan campus, Beep House is known for its distinctive architectural style.

Ferrman Hall/Ann Arbor House on the Hill
1300 S. University Avenue
Ferrman Hall/Ann Arbor House on the Hill, located at 1300 S. University Avenue, is a historic building, now serving as a modern facility.

St. Andrew’s Episcopal Church
210 S. Fourth Avenue
St. Andrew’s Episcopal Church is located on the University of Michigan campus, offering religious services and community gatherings.

Michigan Theater
301 S. Main Street
Michigan Theater is a historic movie theater in Ann Arbor, offering a variety of film screenings and cultural events.

St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church
615 E. Grand River Avenue
St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church, located at 615 E. Grand River Avenue, is a prominent Catholic church in the area.